“ Josh, I am so sorry to hear about the passing of Joey! He was always such a good person! He was a wonderful friend. Your mom, Aunt Joy and myself stayed over there all the time in our younger days. I know you miss him a lot but he is in a better place then either of us! Maybe he can get to know my baby in heaven! Love you sweetie!

“ Josh, I so sorry for the loss of your father. Joey did a lot of work for us over the years and always did an excellent job. One time he even replanted the flower bulbs he had to dig up to put in a shut off valve! John and I thought the world of him.

“ Joey was always so quick to come when I needed him for something. He could work on anything and I always had something that needed "fixin". He worked so hard and long hours. He was a good plumber, carpenter, and he loved flowers and yard work even tho he didn't have much time outside. He loved to tinker with all kinds of things and he liked making things, polishing rocks and made us all wind chimes out of petrified wood. When Josh was young, Joey made sure he could fish and cast a rod and Joey and Pepaw Whitley made sure he hunted and knew the basics of deer hunting. Josh played all sports and Joey was nearly always there for that unless he was working. He learned plumbing mostly on his own working with David Ledbetter and taking classes, he was smart and caught on quickly and had no trouble passing his tests and becoming a master plumber. He would go night and day, rain or shine if someone had a problem and needed help. His birthday was Jan 1 and everyone was always broke because of Christmas, and he told me one time to save one of his Christmas presents and give it to him on his birthday so he would get a surprise on his birthday. Sometimes, he was a little spoiled. I will miss him, just knowing he was there.
